

Just You

Tommy Walker

Just You, You're all I want
Just You, nothing else will do
Just You, can satisfy
Just You, will I bow to

Bridge 1

Blessed are the poor in spirit
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven
So once again I'm letting go
Of all these things that crowd my longing soul

Just You, You're all I want
Just You, nothing else will do
Just You, can satisfy
Just You, will I bow to

Bridge 2

Better is one day in Your courts
Then a thousand without You
More precious than the purest gold
Are these moments when Your love is known
