

Take Your Place

Tommy Walker

You are the awesome, righteous God
Ruling in wisdom, power and strength
I'm just Your child here on the earth
Blinded by temporary things

You're the beginning and the end
You're the all-knowing King of Kings
I'm Your creation, knowing in part
Only the things I see

Pre Chorus

So why do I run, why do I hide
Why do I steal away the throne of my life
Lord help me say

Chorus

Take Your place in my life
Take Your place, only You deserve the right
Take Your place in my life
Every stolen space,
I'm giving back the throne, Your place
In my life

You're the majestic, matchless King
Yet Lord, You gave up everything
I clutch and hold what I cannot keep
You offer wholeness and peace
